Who we are

The Friends of the Tulare County Library is a non-profit organization of people who love libraries, reading, books, volunteering, and raising money to enhance library services.

What we do

- ◆ We raise funds to buy books and equipment for the county libraries. The Friends have purchased computer equipment, furniture, countless books, and donated $35,000 for the new children's library project.
- ◆ We hold outdoor book sales twice per year in May and September.
- ◆ Lobby sales daily in the Visalia Branch.
- ◆ We sponsor volunteer assistance for library programs and services.
- ◆ We sponsor library programs for children (such as story times and the summer reading program.) and adults (such as author nights and adult reading programs).
- ◆ We support grants for books and library programming (such as the Tulare County During WWII program).
